

Cookie Policy

Cookies

In order to provide you with the best possible service, this website places cookies on your computer. Cookies are small text files that are placed on your computer by websites or sometimes via emails. They provide businesses with useful information that helps in all sorts of ways. For you, this means you can use the website more efficiently and save time because you don't have to re-enter the data every time you visit. This allows us to recognize you and retrieve information about your previous visit. The profile that is created for you is not linked to personal data, but only used to tailor the displayed content to your profile so that it is as relevant as possible for you.

Important: with cookies, personal data such as telephone numbers, e-mail addresses and bank account details are excluded from recording. Cookies are completely secure and can never be traced back to an individual or person.

AED360-ProCardio uses functional, analytical- and tracking cookies.

Functional cookies

These are cookies that are strictly necessary for the functioning of the website. Without these cookies, certain parts cannot be used. For example, cookies can be used to save settings and preferences.

Analytical cookies

Anonymized data about surfing behaviour is collected on AED360-ProCardio.com via Google Analytics. Because they are anonymized, they are not personal data. This way we can see how visitors like you use the website. We use this information to make informed decisions about the design of our website. We also optimize the operation of the website with this. The information obtained is stored by Google on servers in the United States. Google also provides this information to advertisers in order to provide insight into the effectiveness of their campaigns. We have no influence on this. We have not allowed Google to use the obtained analytical information for other Google services. More information can be found in Google's privacy policy.

Marketing cookies

We use, among other things, the re-marketing services of Google Adwords (Google Tag Manager) which, by placing a cookie on your device, can display relevant advertising that is adapted to the pages you visit on our website. This cookie in no way identifies you or allows you to access your computer and is only used to say "This person visited this page, so show them advertising related to that page". By using this re-marketing service, we can better meet your needs and only display advertising that is relevant to you.

Embedded content

This website may use content hosted on other sites and made available on AED360-ProCardio.com. Think of YouTube videos. These videos often use cookies to remember preferences. You can find out what they do with the cookies and personal data in the privacy policy of the relevant service. We have no control over this.

Turn off cookies

The functional cookies are necessary to ensure that all functionalities on the website work. You cannot disable these cookies. All other cookies are present to give us insight into how the visitor behaves on our website or to show you personalized advertising. You can disable these cookies.

Automated decision making

AED360-ProCardio does not process data or make decisions based on automated decision-making. AED360-ProCardio therefore never makes a decision that affects your position as a data subject without someone looking at it.

Changes

This privacy policy is tailored to the use of, and the possibilities on, this site. Any adjustments and/or changes to this site may lead to changes to this privacy policy. It is therefore advisable to regularly consult this privacy policy. The most recent version can always be found on our website via the link: www.aed360-procardio.com/cookiepolicy

Exercising rights such as access to personal data

We offer all visitors the opportunity to exercise their rights under the GDPR (AVG – The Netherlands). This means that you have the right to inspect the personal data that we process about you, the right to have your data rectified or deleted, the right to request limitation of the processing of your personal data, the right have your data transferred (to a third party) and have the right to object to the processing. You can make a request to exercise your rights by contacting us via the contact details under the heading 'questions and feedback'. Because we are obliged to establish your identity, we may ask for additional information to ensure that it is really you. Of course we also handle this very carefully. We will process your request as soon as possible and at the latest within one month. If your request is complicated, we have the right to extend the response period by two months. If we do this, you will hear from us within one month of your request.
